Appointment: Prashanth Uppuluri

Foyston, Gordon & Payne Inc. (FGP) is very pleased to announce the hiring of Prashanth Uppuluri, who joins the firm today as a senior research analyst on our foreign equity team.

Prashanth brings almost 20 years of international experience, having worked in finance and investment roles in India, the United States, the United Arab Emirates, and Qatar. He was most recently Senior Equity Analyst at Amwal LLC, a highly rated asset management firm in Qatar. Prashanth also worked in asset-based lending at India's ICICI Bank and in investment banking at New York-based Lehman Brothers. He has an MBA from the University of Michigan and is a CFA charterholder.

Prashanth brings a wealth of experience analyzing companies in developed and emerging markets. He will assume generalist responsibilities on the team and report directly to Stephen Mitchell.

Under Stephen's leadership, FGP's focus has been to further enhance our foreign equity team. Prashanth is the third individual to join the foreign equity team in 2017. Earlier this year, Igor Litvinov and Patty Zhao were appointed to the team as research associates.
